

Spectrum of Light

Exposition for Color. Green 2024
Yellow 2023 / Orange 2022 / Red 2020

Project of an immersive, interactive set design for the space of the MWW Self-Service Museum realized within the framework of the long-term series Spectrum of Light.

Authors: Patrycja Mastej, Magdalena Skowronska

Place of realization: Wrocław Contemporary Museum

A woman and a child are lying in large, green, beanbag-like chairs in a room with green walls and ceiling. The walls feature circular cutouts showing various green-themed illustrations, including plants, animals, and abstract shapes. The overall atmosphere is vibrant and nature-inspired.

GREEN. EXPOSURE TO COLOUR.

The image shows a gallery space where every element is yellow. On the left, a curved wall is covered with numerous small, intricate masks. Below them are two informational panels. In the center, a large, glowing oval light fixture is mounted on a curved, tiered pedestal. The floor is also yellow, with several low, curved, arch-like structures placed on it. On the right, a large curtain hangs, and more masks are displayed on the wall. The overall atmosphere is warm and artistic, focusing on the theme of color and light.
